Safari Like The Stars

Hollywood's hottest adventurers are taking in African wildlife at two of the continent's chicest camps - Lemarti's Camp and Cottar's Safari Service. Uma Thurman and Daniel Craig are fans of Lemarti's (bottom right), located in the Northern area of Kenya along the Ewaso River. Owned by international designer Anna Trzebinski and her Samburu warrior husband Loyapan Lemarti, expect the ultimate in African-chic with wild nature treks and yoga on the water. Thurman, along with Don Cheadle and Ed Norton, has also stayed at Cottar's (top right), located in Kenya's Maasai Mara National Reserve (one of the New Wonders of the World). This old photo-safari camp boasts wildlife picnics and private outdoor baths, where a zebra or two just might stroll by.
